The Life & Teachings of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh: Part 1 (Articles from The Gurdjieff Journal)

Seacoasts, a few blades of sword grass are enough, clinging to a cliff above the frenzied sea; or a pair of pale camellias in the empty gardens, and a blond eucalyptus that dips amid rustlings and wild flights into the light; and suddenly invisible lines snake round me, butterfly in a net of shuddering olive trees and staring sunflowers. The judgement criteria have been strengthened.

Waking Lyra (Waking Series Book 1)

Can we imagine a Christian preacher swearing off the God of Israel by embracing the pagan Allah.

Disasters and Social Change. A scorchingly frank look at how doctors are made, bringing readers into the critical care unit to see one burgeoning physician's journey from ineptitude to competence. Deignorantiaedetestatione. The lovely birds were passed down the compa- nion way to Mr. Yes, typing away with a Negroni in front of me. But maybe you could a little more in the way of content so people could connect with it better. And the truth of the matter is then if the culture imposes no consequences and the family imposes no consequences, the society places no stigma on people for the kind of behaviors that are sinful behaviors, people get so used to sinning without consequences that when you introduce the idea that they will pay in full forever for every sin, that is just alien to their thinking.
