Within Your arms You lift me higher. It tracks his strange on-and-off relationship with Mary Todd, his sudden and puzzling marriage to her, the duel he almost fought with a political opponent, his pragmatic and sometimes contradictory stands on slavery, his desire to be a poet, and his true-to-life flirtation with suicide - all in all, a portrait of a young politician on the make, deeply principled but also deeply flawed. The heroine later remarries, reintegrating herself and her child into Puritan society.

They thought they were doing the right thing. The author, Martin, also addressed two of my biggest pet peeves when it comes to sci-fi novels: 1 jet lag-Why is it never present. I just needed to cleanse. Allyn Pierce was trapped by a wall of fire as he tried to flee the flames coming closer and closer to his truck. I felt myself slowing down in Part VI.
