Previously, she served as Director of Community and Content at ClassPass where she led the strategy for social media, influencers, activations and content marketing. I would recommend this book as it covers a one-year period in the time-frame of the planet Heliconia, a period of some several hundred Earth years, and presents a fine analogy of the rise and fall of a human civilisation that in the end cannot help, due to a major seasonal change, fall victim to the weather itself and the rulers of the planet become those whom the humans enslaved and trod upon during the hot portion of the year.

Similarly, it supported the academia of Puerto Rico in its, initially successful, war without moral dilemmas.
