Talvolta ruvido, ma comunque in linea, il Re di Ugo Guagliardo. I have read both Margaret Atwood books on the list and I would say The Year of the Flood is a great book with a world imagined well and an intriguing story. There is a subtle distinction to be made between the concepts of resemblance. A bit weird reading this about someone else going through a similar thing. Though keeping to his playful ways, he heightens the sense of linkage between prehuman and present-day experience, the biological depth, as it were, of our species. Please review your cart.
