What do you typically get up to on a Saturday night. After an hour of exhausting work we could tell that we were not going to get through in one session. There is so much more to learn about work, families, and children, not only to understand better what families need, but also to inform policy makers, employers, and community leaders on ways to support families and build better communities for all. By ticking the box to the right, you agree that the data you provide will be collected and stored electronically. By keeping Trump's money what does that say about the Clintons-who accept donations from the racist, misogynistic, Islamofascist Saudis and other bigoted, intolerant Moslem government.
